2. Admission Fee, Tuition and Scholarships

(1) Admission Fee & Tuition

○Graduate and Undergraduate Students (2011 academic year)

Admission fee ¥282,000

Tuition (annual amount) ¥535,800

○Research Students (2010 academic year)

Admission fee ¥84,600

Tuition (annual amount) ¥346,800

Tuition (monthly amount) ¥28,900

The fees are subject to change.

The fees have to be paid to the Bursar Section, Division of Financial Affairs (Bursar) on the third floor of the Administration Building before the deadline. (The admission fee has to be paid by postal money order or transfer. The tuition fee has to be transferred from the student's account to the university's account.) The tuition fees for a half year period have to be paid in April and October. Japanese Government Scholarship Students are exempted from both admission and tuition fees.

(2) Tuition Exemption

Degree students on graduate and undergraduate courses whose school records are excellent may be exempted from tuition fees, if they have difficulty paying tuition fees due to financial problems.

If an application for tuition fee exemption is made, the tuition fees do not have to be paid until a decision about the exemption has been reached.

Detailed information and application forms can be obtained from the Student Services Office, Division of Student Affairs.

※ Not everyone who applies will be exempt from paying fees, as the exemptions are limited and applicants have to meet all the criteria to be selected. Those not accepted have to pay tuition fees. So students must be prepared for such a possibility.

○Application Periods

Spring semester: From early February to the mid-March

Fall semester: From early July to the mid-September
